

Bobby Nelon

PRESIDENT | DETROIT THERMAL SYSTEMS

As President of Detroit Thermal Systems, Bobby is responsible for leading all aspects of the Detroit Thermal Systems (DTS), and has been a staple at DTS for many years, serving in multiple capacities.

Bobby is President of Detroit Thermal Systems (DTS), and has been a staple at DTS for many years, serving in multiple capacities. Previously, he was Vice President of Operations and was also a part of the original transfer team to coordinate the move of product and processes from ACH to DTS during the launch in 2013.

Prior to DTS, Bobby was with Continental Automotive for 21 years in Operations Management and Supply Chain Management roles.

Bobby holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Business from the University of North Carolina at Asheville.